The Rainbow Began . . .

On August 25, 1969, an unruly troop of 29 of our present members of our 1981 class became FIRST GRADERS as we entered Mrs. Leonard's and Mrs. Spear's rooms. These excited but uncertain youngsters were Richard, Doug, Miles, Kim, Tammy, Tim, Kevin, Janie, Clifford, Judi, Johnny, Kim, La-Nita, Greg, Steve, Judy, Darryl, Barbie, Kevin, Pam, Woodrow, Judy, Kayla, Vicki, Marla, Francene, Naomi, Loretta and Carol. We were a group of talented youngsters preparing to square dance for entertainment at the talent show, playing cowboys and Indians at recess, and starting our band off with "Please, Please Don't Be a Litter Bug."

Finally, we passed the first grade and made it to SECOND GRADE where Mrs. Parish and Mrs. Young taught us to tell time; however, as you can see, some of us are still tardy. We also added Lisa McAdoo to our crowd of energetic classmates.

THIRD GRADE brought many new experiences along. Mrs. Stewart, Mrs. Pelley, and Mrs. Combs, who retired and was replaced by Mrs. Shultz, kept us under their close supervision. Some of us watched eggs become chickens in the incubator, and the rest of us had to stand in the hall for various reasons.

FOURTH GRADE was an industrious year for this was the year of the great sand castle contest. It was Mrs. Kirkpatrick's room versus Mrs. Pelley's as we each tried to build our class's entry the highest. The end result was a tie and a great deal of sand in clothing, hair, etc. One outstanding lesson of the year was "Pianos weren't meant to eat on."

FIFTH GRADE brought four new friends, Donald, Glenda, Robin, and Steve. Mrs. Laing and Mrs. Vincent spent many tedious hours teaching us the fifty states and their capitals. We finally had the privilege of beginning our basketball careers. We also had great aspirations of becoming famous musicians or vocalists as a result of our first full year of band and vocal classes.

SIXTH GRADE was an exciting year. We were the "Seniors" of grade school. Mrs. Conover and Mrs. Ballard kept our enthusiasm within bounds while guiding us through the year's studies. Pep rallies and looking forward to graduation into middle school kept us anxious and busy.

All through the SEVENTH GRADE we had the experience of changing classes and trying to beat the tardy bell.

We thought we had really arrived when we got to go to Tri State with the band. Lynne and Lisa came in time to enjoy Mrs. Werhan's participation grades.

Everyone remembers the closeness of the EIGHTH GRADE basketball tournament at Am-Po. We had the distinction of being the first graduation class from middle school. The band visited Six Flags and Carolyn Dorman joined us in time to go along.

As FRESHMEN we finally made it to high school and became the low men on the totem pole once again. Our football team was undefeated and unscored against. The Home Ec department threatened disaster, but culinary talents and sewing skills began to improve and hope began to show for our future domestic lives. Ruth, Ruby, and Janelle became far-out freshmen that year.

Russ, Tana, and Annette added "spice" to our Drivers Ed class and great renditions of Shakespeare's ROMEO AND JULIET and JULIUS CEASAR echoed through the halls as our SOPHOMORE year got underway. Lake Charles, Louisiana, became our foremost goal as the year came to an end because our band trip was scheduled in April.

Our JUNIOR year brought with it excitement and anticipation as we awaited the arrival of our class rings. From selling T-shirts and candles to car washes, we accomplished our goal of providing an elegant banquet for the seniors. Displaying unexpected courage, Coach McElroy and Coach Walker worked diligently with the material available in order to field a team to play in the Powder Puff Football game against the seniors. Although our class wasn't too pleased with the score, we did feel our cheerleaders were outstanding. We enjoyed our band trip to San Antonio, Texas, and then anxiously awaited the day when we would be "Seniors".

Now we have arrived. We are at the top of the totem pole! Along with the privileges of "Senioritus" have come many responsibilities, great expenses, and hectic schedules. Our memories hold tears and many laughs. Although we will miss our friends and the life we've shared, we have challenges to conqueror and new friends to make. Graduation is the end of one fragment of our lives and the best is yet to come.

Today Tomorrow Forever

As juniors planning the banquet, the 1981 seniors became attached to rainbows with all their many shades of color. Decorations for the banquet revolved around the rainbow which glowed behind a shimmering waterfall. This abundance of color combined with a menu of "Magnificance in Splendor" catered by the Methodist church ladies gave both classes and their guests a joyous feast.

Janie Smith welcomed the seniors to the banquet and Nina Coody gave the response. Following Mr. Hodge's response to the welcome, the entertainment was provided by the Tunesmiths of CSU. Lisa McAdoo and Marla Meadows read the prophecy about the seniors. David Meadows and Tammy Caywood reigned over the night's festivities as King and Queen. The closing remarks of the evening were made by Gregg Price.

Sophomore Waitresses

Eagerly waiting for service were LaNita Shaw, Duane Cunningham, Tammy Jennings, and Janie Smith.

Mr. and Mrs. McElroy, Mr. and Mrs. Hodges enjoy the festivities.

Contently watching the program were Judy Welborn, Kayla Davis, Kim Porter and Terre Dorman.

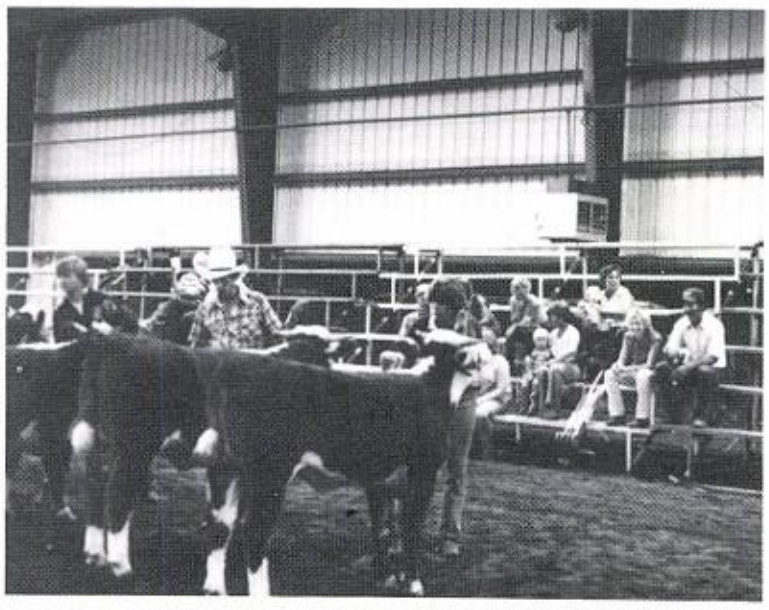
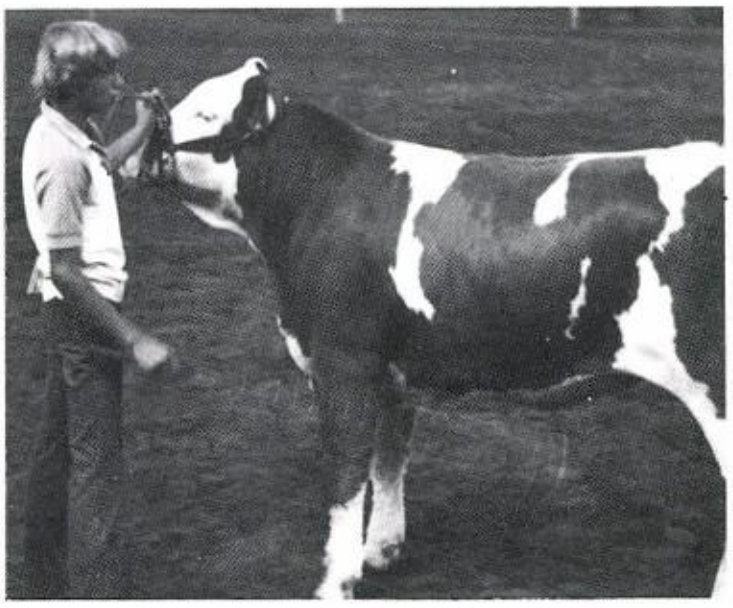
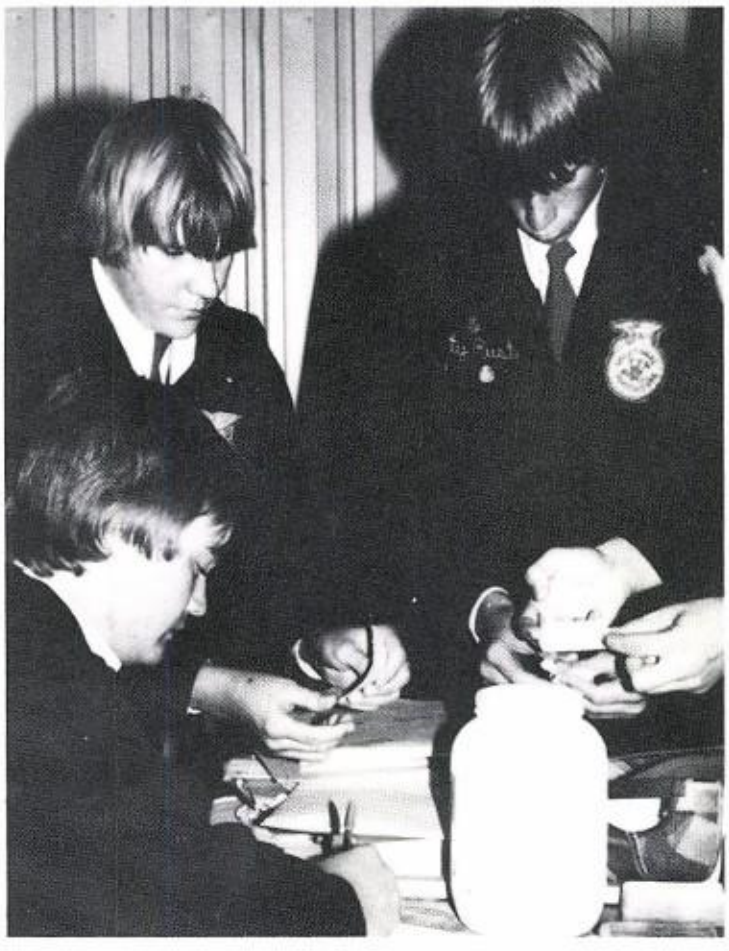
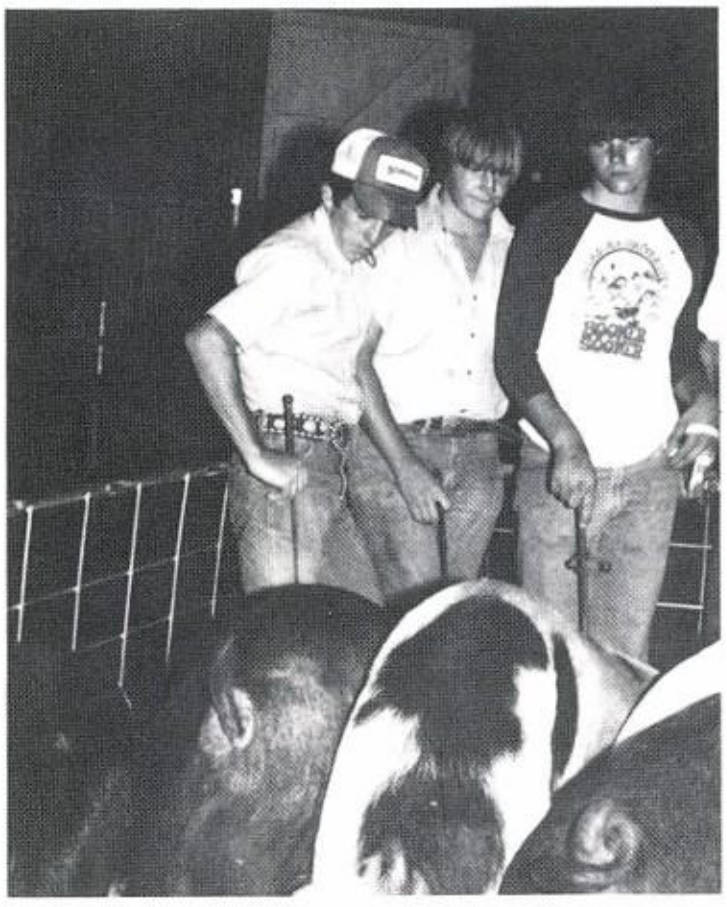
OF AMERICA









FHA HOBO QUEEN

The Hobo Queen, Angela Crow was crowned at a special meeting of the Future Homemakers of America. Her crown was made of a shortening can decorated with labels and purple flowers. The long flowing robe was of red burlap trimmed in white Eyelet. She was presented with a red rose, the flower of the organization. The attendants, Michelle Townsend and Tammy Garrett both received a long stemmed red rose. The Hobo Queen honor is won by the girl who earns the most money on Hobo Day. The attendants are the first and second runner-ups. The money is used as project money for the chapter.

The 1980-81 Redskins were young and inexperienced. The team consisted of 4 seniors, 2 juniors and 3 sophomores.

Even though the season's record wasn't outstanding, they never got down and quit working. This effort should pay off in the future.

We're looking forward to a winning season next year.

The Lady Redskin Basketball Team of 1980-81 possessed qualities that every coach is always in search of: determination, unselfishness, dedication, dependability, character, and a burning desire to excel. Our season was climaxed by winning the district championship and advancing to regional play. The enthusiastic attitude of our team carried over to our student body and community. The spark of enthusiasm created an atmosphere of pride that was evident by the large following we had to the regional tournament. I think our season can best be summarized in two words, pride and intensity. We hope that these words will become traditional labels for our teams.

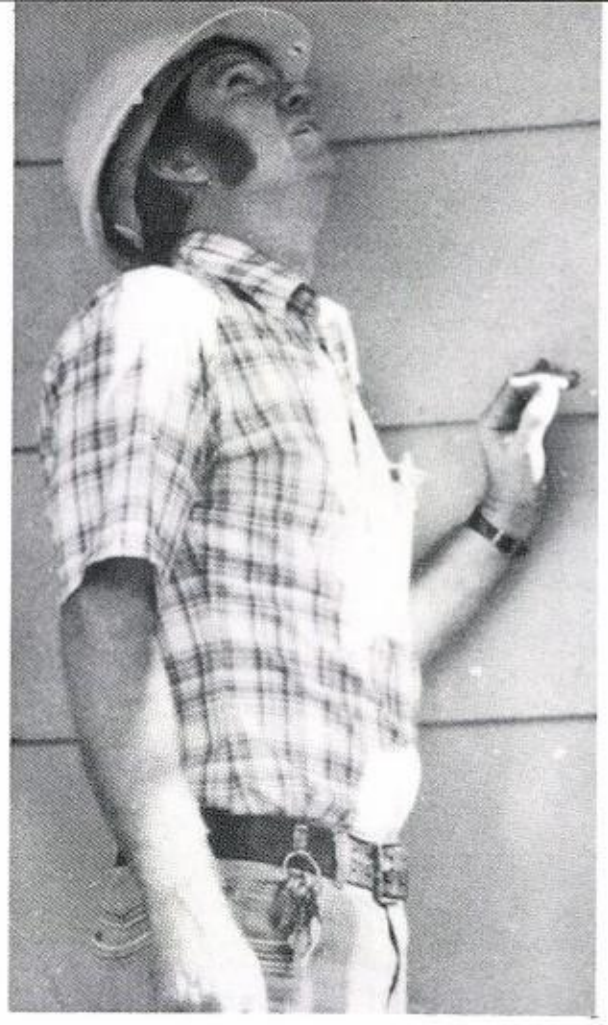
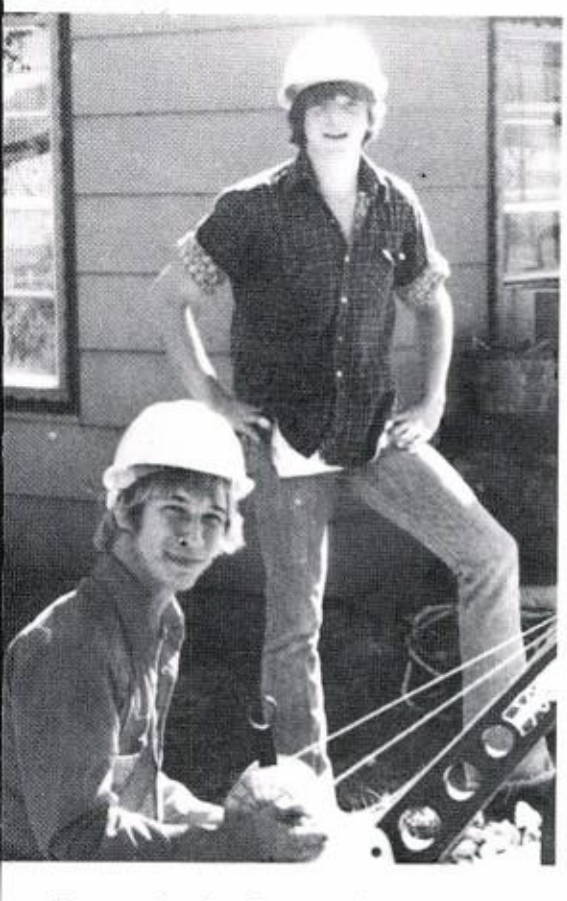
This is a Stick-Up



Hey, Boss, does this go over there?????



It's a bird . . .
It's a plane . . .
It's my C.V.E.T. class . . .

A new program was started this year called C.V.E.T. construction (Co-ordinated, Vocational Education Training). This class is a general construction class, which is involved in all types of construction including: general carpentry, electricity, plumbing, concrete work, masonry, etc. All work experience is on the job training.

I wonder is Santa Claus would bring me one of these for Christmas??????????

The 1980-81 Vocal Music Class traveled to Weatherford and Stillwater for their fall festivities. Their participation in these events helped them to gain knowledge and to learn performance techniques. In the spring several students will go to district contest in Lawton. All students gained some stage experience when they acted and sang in a stage musical about the 50's. One of the highlights of the year was singing at the Christmas program.

CrazEe DAZe

Even though the Sixth Graders won the coveted Crazee Daze trophy, Middle School students thoroughly enjoyed the activities reigned over by Queen Tonya Caywood and King Marty Duke. Members of the Middle School Student Council sponsored the project.

MIDDLE SCHOOL BAND

Middle School Twirlers

The Jr. High Band was very active in performing at all of the home and some of the away games. They marched in the Chickasha parade and also in the Tri-State Music Festival parade. A trip to Six Flags over Texas is planned for their end of the year trip.

With goals of things like trips to San Antonio, Enid, and Six Flags to keep their feet marching in time to the new drum cadence, band students played on, and on, and on.

Performing to the strains of Harlem Globetrotter music the newly organized Little Dribblers group delighted audiences at the half times of basketball games this year. Composed of hard working girls from the 5th, 6th, and 7th grades, the group demonstrated a high degree of skill in ball handling and dribbling. Directed by Phil Landrum, the group plans to continue its emphasis on ball control skills and become even more proficient each year. The girls began practice during the summer of 1980.

This year's school board has been responsible for initiating plans for a new high school building to be constructed for the 1981-82 school year. Through the graciousness of the voters of the Rush Springs School District, these plans originated by the board will become a reality.

The high school will contain eight large class rooms, one small film room, a large home economics facility, a library, and office spaces. Middle school students will move into the existing high school facility and the outdated junior high building, built in 1922, will be removed.

The school board members are to be commended for their insight into the needs of the children of Rush Springs not only for today but for generations to come.
